DENVER – The United Food and Commercial Workers Union Local 7 (UFCW 7), will protest Wednesday, September 16, against the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) in Denver for placing an ineffectual fine of only $15,615 on JBS for failing to protect employees from exposure to the coronavirus in their meat packing facilities in Greeley, CO.

Members will gather outside the OSHA Denver office and hear from the families of those who died unnecessarily from COVID-19, as well as UFCW Local 7 President Kim Cordova, and other community leaders. Please note ironically, that the OSHA bureaucrats are not working from this office because it is deemed to dangerous during the pandemic, while JBS' workers were not protected and six of our members died, almost 300 were infected.
