TOMORROW: UFCW LOCAL 7 GROCERY STORE WORKERS TO RALLY IN DENVER

*UFCW Local 7 Grocery Store Workers and Community Leaders Call On King Soopers
To End Unfair Labor Practices And Negotiate In Good Faith*

DENVER – Tomorrow, the United Food and Commercial Workers Union Local 7 (UFCW Local 7) will host a rally in support of grocery store workers striking against King Soopers over its continued unfair labor practices.

At the beginning of January, Local 7 members voted almost unanimously (95%) in favor of a strike which currently impacts 8,400 workers across 77 King Soopers/Kroger stores. The strike began this morning at 5:00 AM MT and will continue until the Company meets the demands of the Union members for the equitable policies and common-sense changes that workers deserve.

WHO: Kim Cordova (President, UFCW Local 7), UFCW Local 7 members, elected officials, and community partners

WHAT: Rally to Support Workers Striking Against Unfair Labor Practices

WHEN: Thursday, January 13, 2022, at 1:00 PM MT

WHERE: Across the street from King Soopers 124, at Leetsdale Drive and Dahlia St in Glendale.
