

Join us for Solidarity Tuesdays on Tuesday, April 19, and the third Tuesday of every following month. Wear your union colors, buttons, and other swag to express your union solidarity!

For the month of April, we are focused on safe staffing. With the hashtags, #SolidarityTuesdays #SafeStaffing, tell us what #SafeStaffing means to you on social media.

How to Participate

Step 1: On April 19, 2022, wear your union colors, stickers, and buttons

Step 2: Take a photo wearing your union gear and post it on social media with the hashtags #SolidarityTuesdays #SafeStaffing

Step 3: In the post description, tell us what #SafeStaffing means to you.

Step 4: Make sure to also tag @ufcwlocal7healthcare on Instagram and Facebook

Friendly Reminders

- Remember, your Union activity is protected under the National Labor Relations Act(NLRA).
- Take photos and post on social media during non-work time.
- Avoid taking photos where patients and sensitive data might be present (monitors, bulletins, patient images, patient photos, etc.) to protect our patients' health information.
